

14th International
Gas and Electricity Summit

Luc Poyer, CEO

Paris October 21, 2009

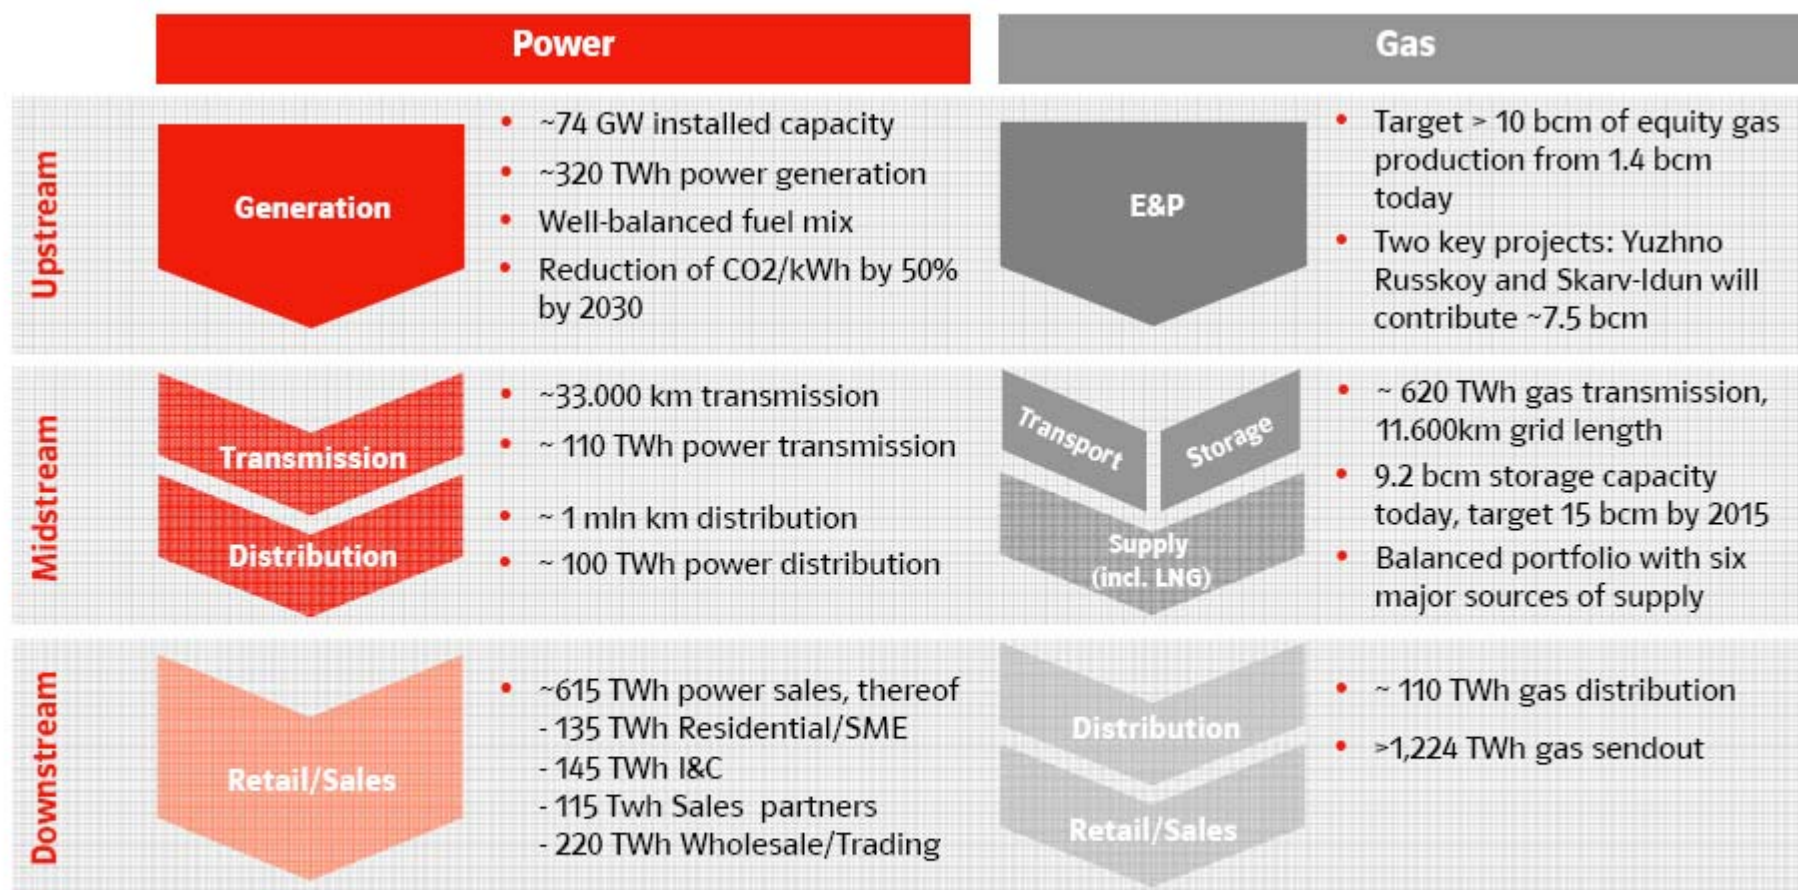

One of the world's largest investor-owned power and gas companies.

Our Mission:

- To offer our clients competitive and reliable services that give them advantages and benefits.
- To join international with local competencies and put into practice the best ideas, both from in-house and from outside.
- To achieve excellent results for our shareholders and offer extremely good future prospects for our employees.

Our business: Integrated power and gas company

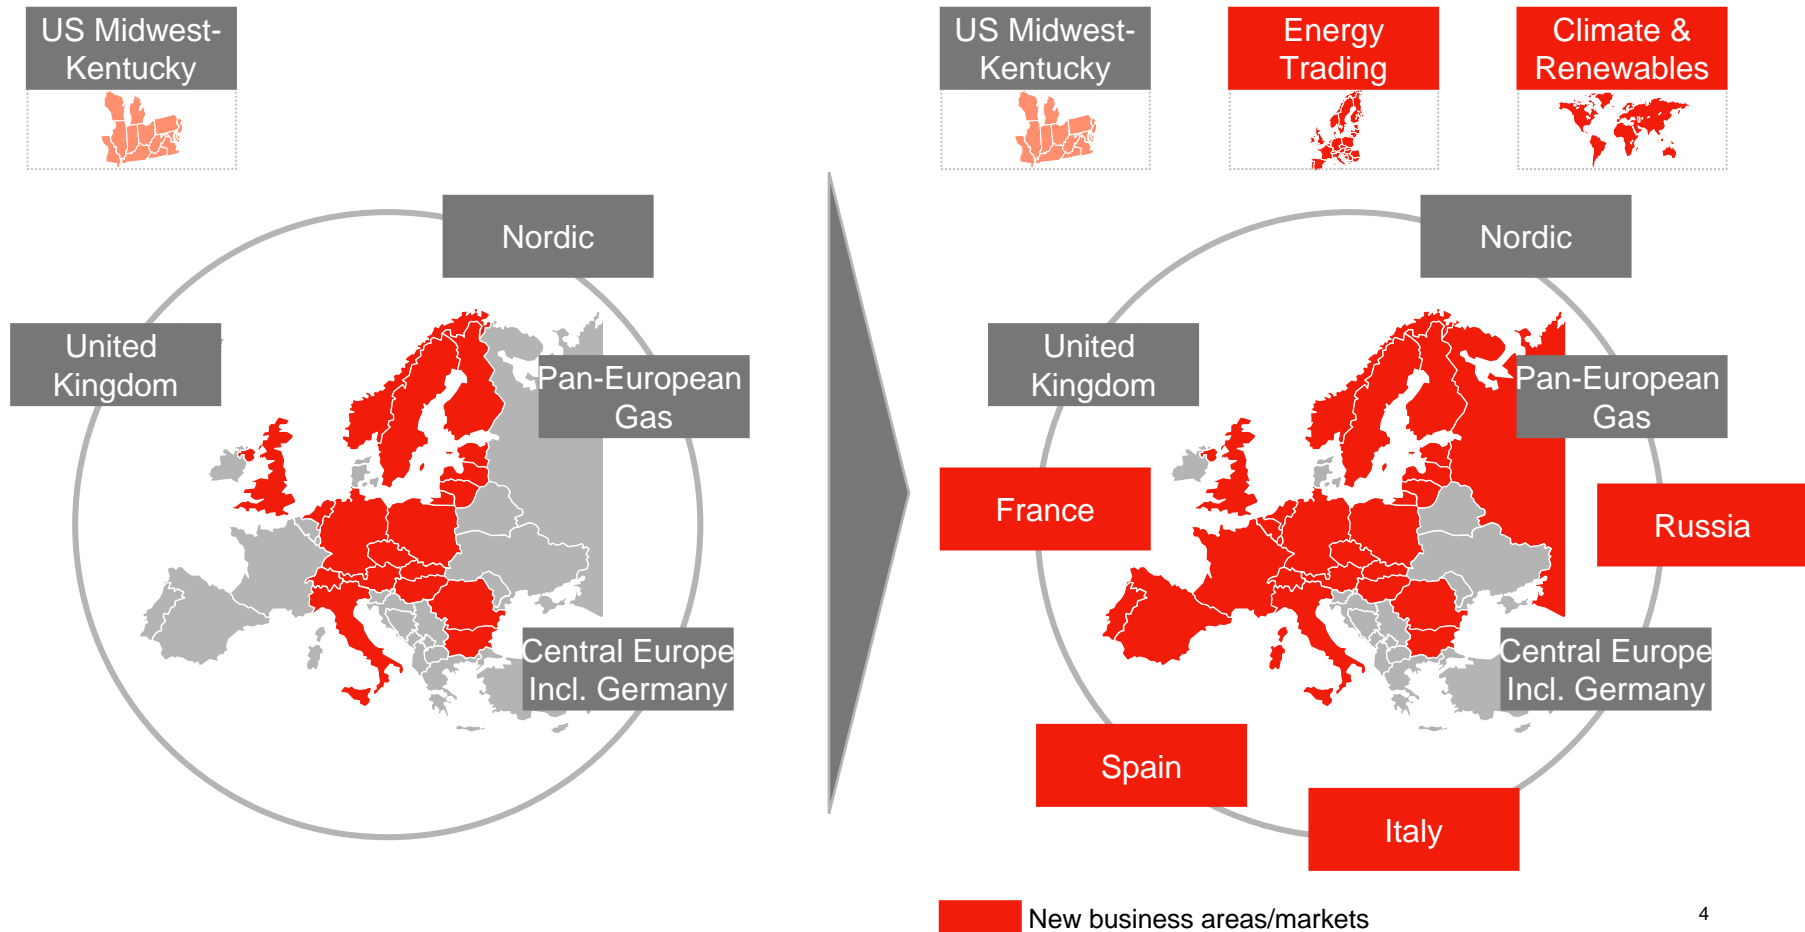

Focused along the value chain while building on a broad European footprint

Successful expansion achieved during 2007 and 2008

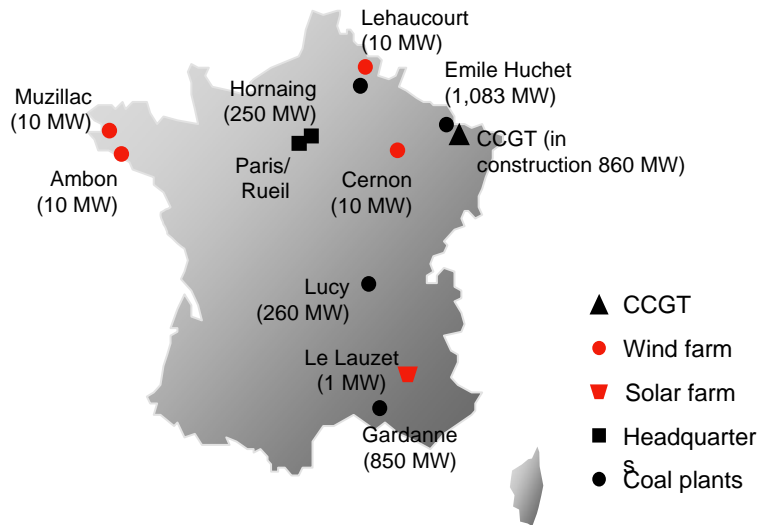

E.ON in May 2007

E.ON today

E.ON is committed to the French market

Generation capacity: 2.5 GW

Key
Figures
E.ON France

Production (2008)	10 TWh
Revenue (2008)	1,809 M€
Employees (2009)	1,031

Long-term Vision E.ON in France

Based on E.ON's global vision E.ON will strengthen its position as "third force" on the French energy market by:

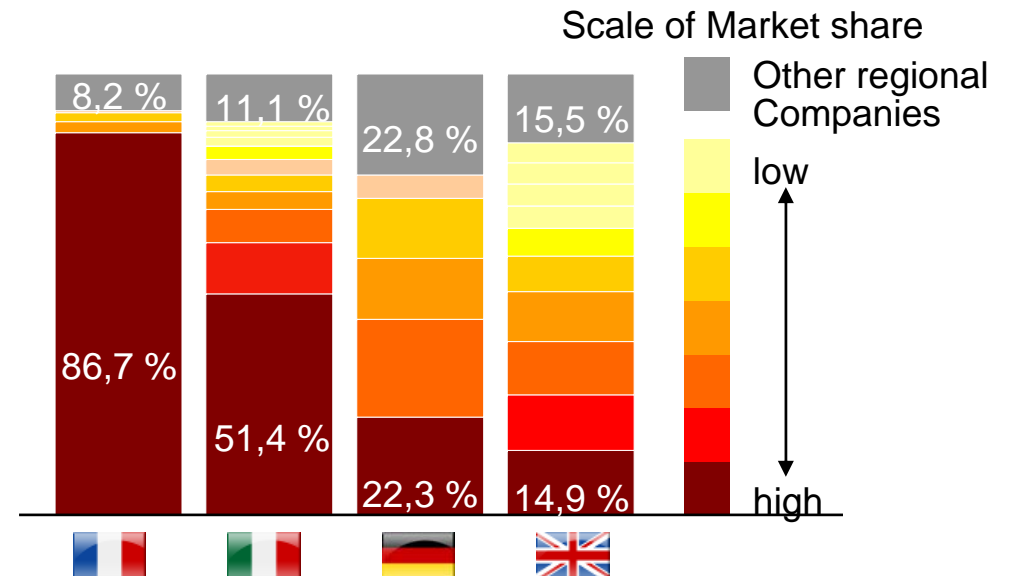

- Generation
- Sustainability
- Convergence
- Deregulation / Competition
- Corporate Responsibility

The French energy market underlies strong dynamics

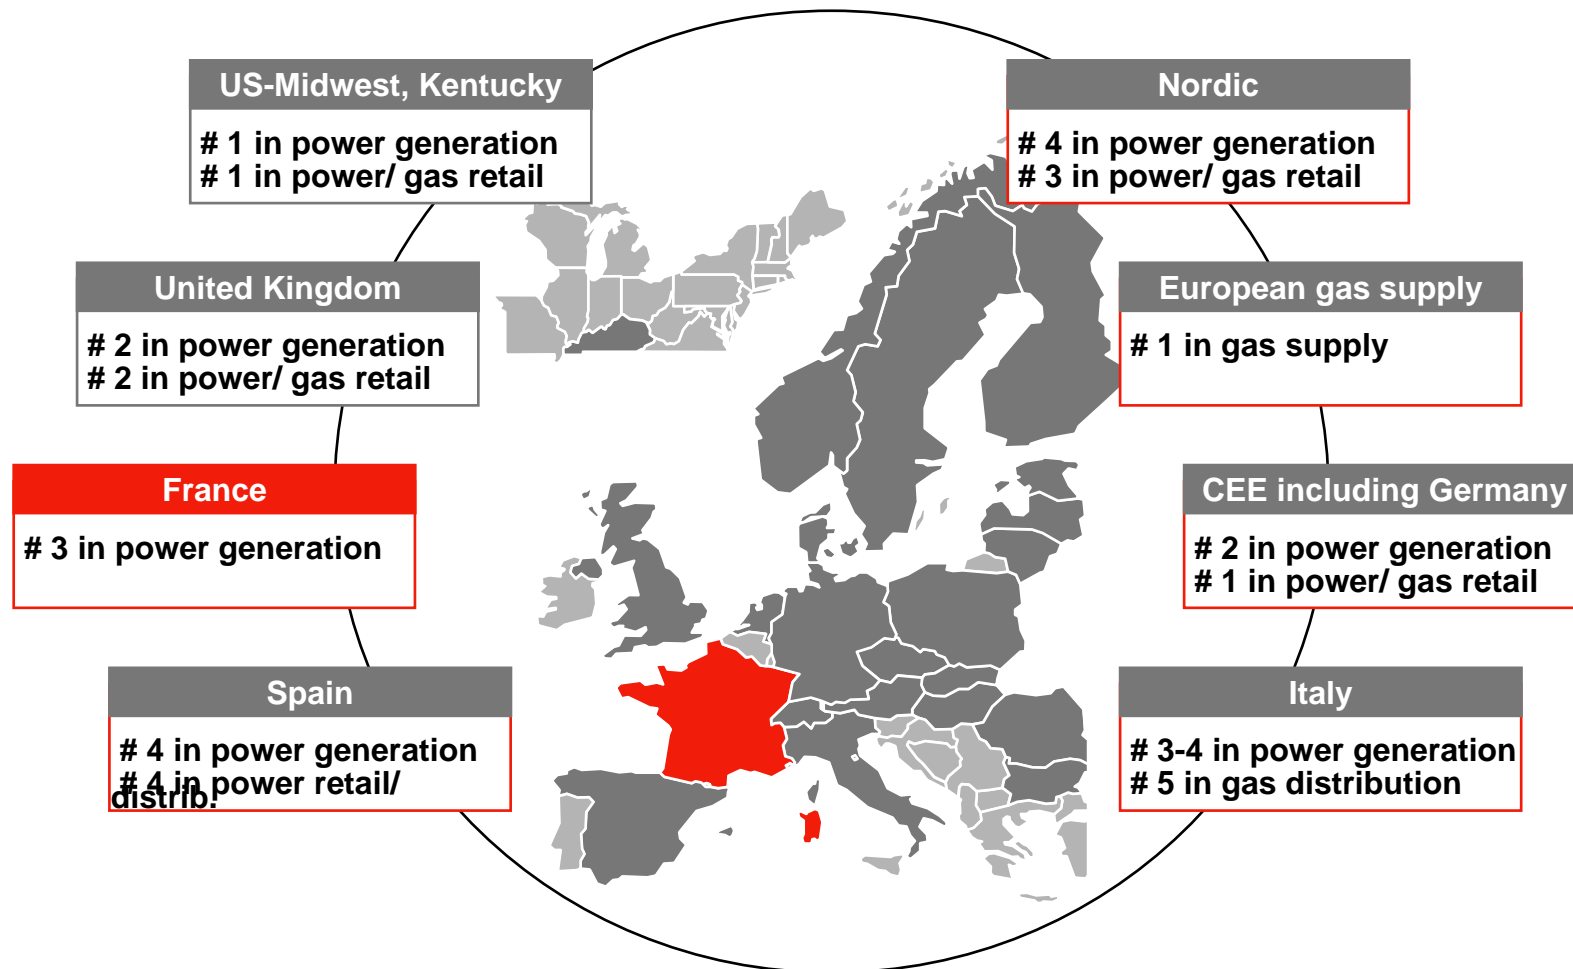

Market driver

- Market Development
- Competition
- Report „Commission Champsaur“
- Regulation generation
- Environmental regulation
- Taxes

Market share of available installed Capacities (2005)

French market offers great opportunities

14th International
Gas and Electricity Summit

Luc Poyer, CEO

Paris October 21, 2009